

EQUINE WELLNESS WORKSHOP

WITH CINDY HARTZELL

APRIL 14 & 15, 2012 TRUCKEE, CA.

- Does your horse suffer from stress and anxiety?
- Does your horse lack self- confidence and spook easily?
- Does your horse have a chronic health issue?
- Do you desire to have a better relationship with your horse?

Reiki (Universal Life Force Energy) is the art and science of channeling the universal life force energy to promote spiritual, mental and physical healing. Reiki will help your horses to overcome all of these issues and so much more.

Cindy Hartzell is a Reiki Master/Teacher, equine aroma-therapist, an animal communicator and a veterinary technician. During this two day workshop students will receive Reiki Level I training. Everyone will have the opportunity to give and receive a Reiki session.

You will learn about the seven major chakras and how they can be used during a Reiki session on your horse to balance and promote healing in the entire body. You'll learn about essential oils and their applications during a Reiki session. Cindy will also teach you how to explore and develop your intuitive communication abilities with horses while giving a Reiki session. Everyone will do a Reiki session on a horse during the workshop.

Upon completion each participant will receive Reiki Level I Therapist certification, having gained the skills and confidence to do a Reiki session on horses, humans, cats, dogs and anything else, it uses are limitless.

Individual and groups workshops available at a cost of $325 per person.
